It is best to start any warm up with a set of arpeggios using a combination of free stroke and rest stroke with the a finger. A full sextuplet arpeggio, like the one below, allows for a gradual warm-up while saving time by involving all four right hand fingers at once. The following etude by Mauro Giuliani has fairly simple left hand chords, so

MB30215 COMPLETE WARM-UP - Denver Public Schools

Here is a basic warm-up for beginner to early intermediate classical guitarists. I made this with some of my students in mind who might rebel if it was longer than one page! I recommend that teachers get their students to memorize these and play them before working on scales and arpeggios or RCM technique or whatever routine you have going.
