From Wild Man to Wise Man Quotes by Richard Rohr

Reading From Wild Man to Wise Man is for me a journey to God. Since I was an undergraduate, I have adamantly maintained a passive rejection of God, not really judging people of faith, but definitely not feeling it. Despite my superficially diverse Christian heritage, however, I never did much to study the concept of God, outside of reading some ...

From Wild Man to Wise Man: Chapter One: The Wild Man

"From Wild Man to Wise Man," by Richard Rohr just as both man and woman are images of God, the human spiritual journey can be described as both male and female. In general, women are more in touch with their spiritual side, a spirituality that can be described as "feminine."
